"Drama students are courageous. They willingly face new challenges every day with joy, passion and commitment."

commitment. What more could you ask for?" (Drama club of 2015 retained each other’s friendship and especially their personal loyalty.)

A group of students in the Department of Performing Arts (DPA) at FIS (International School of Phuket) is proud of the school’s Drama Club, which recently won the 2016 ISBOA (International School Bank of America) Drama Competition. The club is proud of its successes, which include previous wins in the same competition and also participation in other school events.

In fact, the Drama Club is one of the most successful and well-respected clubs at the school, winning numerous awards and recognition for its performances. The club’s success is attributed to the dedication and hard work of its members, who are passionate about their craft and committed to producing high-quality productions.

In addition to their success in competitions, the Drama Club is also known for its excellent reputation as a place where students can explore their creativity and develop their skills. The club’s commitment to providing a supportive and inclusive environment for all members is a major factor in its success.

The Drama Club’s success is a testament to the strength of the school’s arts program and its commitment to providing students with opportunities to pursue their passions and develop their talents. The club’s success also highlights the importance of arts education in schools, and the role that it plays in fostering creativity and personal growth among students.

