An Evening for Information and Conversation on The Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to the Sexual Abuse of Children

The Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to the Sexual Abuse of Children is a critical moment in the life of the Church in Australia. It confronts us with the pain of those who have been hurt by their experience of the Church, and the inconsistency and inadequacy of responses to such hurt. At the same time the Royal Commission offers us all an opportunity to learn how better to protect our children and how better to respond to people should various forms of abuse ever occur in the future.

On this evening we will be joined by Sr. Maree Marsh CSB from the Truth, Justice and Healing Council of the Australian Catholic Bishops’ Conference who will brief us on the work of the Commission and the Council. Staff from the Office for Clergy in the diocesan Curia will also brief us on the response to allegations of abuse within our local church and the resources available to assist people who may be affected.

All are Welcome to Attend
