"We congratulate the Class of 2013 for their wonderful HSC results. During their time at Loreto Normanhurst, these amazing young women have mastered academic rigor, enriched with countless, deeply meaningful conversations. They have developed intellectual curiosity that will lead to a lifelong love of learning. They have enjoyed excellent relationships with our dedicated and professional staff, and have grown together with friends who will hopefully travel with for life. They have successfully experienced and benefitted from a holistic Loreto education. The Class of 2013 are wise and confident young women, who are equipped and ready to meet the challenges of the world ahead of them, and I wish them every success for their future."

- Ms Barbara Watkins, Principal
