

PRIVACY POLICY

Loreto Normanhurst Privacy Policy details how the School manages personal, sensitive and medical information provided to or collected by the School.

The School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. The School is also bound by NSW Health Privacy Principles which are contained in the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (Health Records Act).

The School may, from time to time, review and update this Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to the School's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information does Loreto Normanhurst collect and how is this collected?

The type of information the School collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including health and other sensitive information, about:

- Students and parents and/or guardians ('parents') before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at the School;
- Job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors; and
- Other people who come into contact with the School.

Examples of personal information are names, addresses and other contact details; dates of birth, next of kin details, financial information, photographic images and attendance records.

Examples of sensitive information (particularly in relation to student and parent records) include information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Examples of health information (particularly in relation to student and parent records) include medical records, disabilities, immunisation details, individual health care plans, counselling reports, nutrition and dietary requirements.

Personal Information you provide

The School will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than parents and students provide personal information.

If you provide the School with personal information about other people, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School, why you are disclosing and that the individual has the right to access their information if they wish.

Personal Information provided by other people

In some circumstances, the School may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Exception in relation to employee records

Under the Privacy Act and Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW), the Australian Privacy Principles and Health Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Policy, does not apply to the School's treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the School and employee.

HOW WILL THE SCHOOL USE THE PERSONAL INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE?

The School will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

STUDENTS AND PARENTS

In relation to personal information of students and parents, the School's primary purpose of collection is to enable the School to provide education for the student, exercise its duty of care, and perform associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in activities of the School. This includes satisfying the needs of parents, the needs of the student and the needs of the School throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which the School uses personal information of students and parents include:

- To keep parents informed about matters related to their child's education, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- Day-to-day administration of the School;
- Looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- Seeking donations and marketing for the School; and
- To satisfy the School's legal obligations and allow the School to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases, where the School requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not provided, the School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a activity.

JOB APPLICANTS, STAFF MEMBERS AND CONTRACTORS

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be. The purposes for which the school uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- In administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- For insurance purposes;
- Seeking donations and marketing for the School; and
- To satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

VOLUNTEERS

The School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist the School in its functions and associated activities in order to enable the School and the volunteers to work together.

MARKETING AND FUNDRAISING

Loreto Normanhurst treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the School as an important part of ensuring that the School continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by Loreto Normanhurst may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising. Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

WHO MIGHT THE SCHOOL DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION TO AND STORE YOUR INFORMATION WITH?

The School may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to:

- Other schools and teachers at those schools;
- Government departments;
- Medical practitioners;
- People providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, counsellors and sports coaches;
- Providers of learning and assessment tools;
- Assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
- People providing administrative and financial services to the School;
- Parent Associations/Committees;
- Media professionals;
- Recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
- Students' parents or guardians;
- Anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and
- Anyone to whom we are required to disclose the information to by law.

SENDING AND STORING INFORMATION OVERSEAS

Loreto Normanhurst may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, the School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- Obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- Otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

Loreto Normanhurst may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.

HOW DOES THE SCHOOL TREAT SENSITIVE INFORMATION?

In referring to 'sensitive information', the School means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

MANAGEMENT AND SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

Loreto Normanhurst has in place steps to protect the personal information the School holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records through the allocation of varying security levels based on staff security levels.

The School may utilise Third Party providers to deliver online applications for students and staff. Consequently, details may be transferred, stored and processed in other countries utilised by these Third-Party providers.

Personal information we hold that is no longer needed is destroyed in a secure manner, deleted or de-identified as appropriate.

ACCESS AND CORRECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act and the New South Wales Health Privacy Principles which are contained in the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (Health Records Act), an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information which the School holds about them and to advise the School of any perceived inaccuracy. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or update any personal information the School holds about you or your child, please contact the Principal in writing. The School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. The School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, the School will advise the likely cost in advance. If the School cannot provide you with access to that information, it will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

CONSENT AND RIGHTS OF ACCESS TO THE PERSONAL INFORMATION OF STUDENTS

The School respects every parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, the School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's parents. Loreto Normanhurst will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student and notice to parents will act as notice given to the student.

As mentioned above, parents may seek access to personal information held by the School about them or their child by contacting the Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student.

The School may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by the School about them or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances so warranted.

ENQUIRIES AND COMPLAINTS

If you would like further information about the way the School manages personal information it holds, or to make a complaint regarding a breach in the Australian Privacy Principles, please contact the Principal in writing. Complaints of this nature are taken very seriously, and the School will investigate. A response will be provided to the complainant as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days on receipt of the complaint.

If the response is not acceptable, then the complainant may escalate the matter to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) via <http://www.oaic.gov.au/>.
