

Catterns spruiks the gift of the gab

7 April 2011 - Hornsby Advocate

@ Loreto Normanhurst

POPULAR radio presenter Angela Catterns hosted an oratory night at the school last month.

Ms Catterns encouraged Loreto students to be involved in debating and public speaking, and emphasised the value of sharing opinions through formal interschool competitions and friendly debates with local schools.

Guest presenters talked about public speaking techniques and performance tricks, debating adjudication, styles and protocols.

Loreto girls had a chance to practise their techniques in a friendly debate with students from Normanhurst Boys.

Students from Abbotsleigh, Sydney Girls High, Knox Grammar and Sydney Grammar also attended.

Talking point . . . Angela Catterns encouraged Loreto students to share their opinions.
